ORAL HEALTH CARE SERVICES FOR INTELLECTUALLY DISABLED INDIVIDUALS: PROBLEMS & SOLUTIONS
When compared to the other health services, intellectually disabled individuals encounter difficulties mostly in oral health care services. Inadequate communication, lack of cooperation and systemic health problems may be the causes of this situation. In this study, oral health care services provided for these individuals in Turkey are evaluated and suggestions for steps to be taken to improve the current system are presented.