As of March 2010 with trout farms in the province of Isparta, some structural, technical and economic aspects of observations, in the city center and is spinning in the province, Aksu, Sütçüler, Uluborlu, Atabey Seasonality, the district was carried out in Şarkikaraağaç. The province's Agriculture Department continues to work primarily in the province have been sent questionnaires and surveys were forwarded to the facility owner. The provincial Department of Agriculture as well as those belonging to the business front was provided general information. Existing businesses in the region of 71 questionnaires were sent to each. This questionnaire forms for producers, as well as the business owners and experts of the Directorate of Agriculture was completed by the province. Later surveys were evaluated and the findings were obtained from in the region aquaculture farmers.

Keywords: Trout, fishery products, Isparta