

Purpose of the study on human rights and protection of minorities is to understand the expectations of Turkey to the European Union. Content analysis method for the study. Results, written for regular progress reports by the European Union from Turkey groups, respectively. Work, 1998-2012 is limited to fourteen years between. According to the results expected, the introduction part of the report for the institutionalization of human rights, civil and political rights, the prevention of torture in the economic, social and cultural rights, gender equality section, minority rights and protection of minorities, the rights of IDPs³ are concentrated on the section.