

In this work, Euclidean 3-space curves with positive curvature k , torsion t and spherical tangential parameter s such that the radius of curvature k^{-1} which satisfies an eigenvalue equation are examined. We delineate the equations in terms of evolutes and involutes of a space curve c and supply relations between evolutes and involutes.