

In this paper, we give some theorems and general formulation for inextensible flows of spherical curves using its geodesic frame in 3-dimensional Euclidean space. Necessary and sufficient conditions for inextensible curve flows are expressed as a partial differential equation involving the geodesic curvature.