ABSTRACT

During World War II years, after April 1941 the all Greece was invaded by Germany. After this invasion, Greece suffered for a disastrous term called “Great Starvation Period” in which hundreds of thousands people died. In this term, Turkey was almost the only nation to provide Greece for 1 Bu makale Süleyman Demirel Üniversitesi Sosyal Bilimler Enstitüsü Tarih Anabilim Dalında tamamlanan ve BAP Koordinasyon Birimi tarafından 3777-YL1-13 proje numarası ile desteklenen “II. Dünya Savaşı Yıllarında ve Sonrasında Türk Yunan GliGkilerinde Dostluk Örnekleri (1939–1954)” isimli yüksek lisans tezinden üretilmiştir. *Yrd. Doç. Dr., Süleyman Demirel Üniversitesi Fen Edebiyat Fakültesi Tarih Bölümü,e-posta: kadirkasalak@sdu.edu.tr Süleyman Demirel Üniversitesi Sosyal Bilimler Enstitüsü Tarih Yüksek lisans mezunu, e-posta: benramazanbas@hotmail.com Kadir KASALAK – Ramazan BAg [124] remarkable aids about humanitarian matters such as preventing the starvation and adopting Greek refugees. But in fact World War II years, those aids of Turkey to Greece does not start in this Great Starvation Period. Before Great Starvation Period, in other words during Italian invasion (between October 1940 and April 1941) Turkey had helped Greece in this 6 months’ period as well. This research explains this by showing concrete examples. Key Words: Turkey, Greece, Italy, The II. World War II, aid