Foreign-body ingestion is a rare event which can cause serious morbidity and mortality, in adults. Treatment approaches of swallowed unknown objects are endoscopic intervention, monitoring and surgery. A twenty-one year old woman with complaint of potent epigastric pain was admitted. A complete of shopping bag was determined in her stomach during upper gastrointestinal system endoscopic examination, and she was not aware that she was swallowed a shopping bag. In this article, treatment of gastric pain with gastroscopy due to forgotten foreign body in stomach was examined.