‘Muhiddin Mescit’ is a unique structure, which survive in power from Ottoman days up until now, and take place at Isparta city center. Muhiddin Masjid located on which is in one of the oldest place of Isparta, namely Emre quarter, is among the mosques and old buildings that located the historical setting. For history; mescids which were built in Isparta at the Ottoman Period have been researched by using different sources, but didn’t founded any knowledge about this issue. It informs perhaps us about the plans and the architecture of the century in Isparta with its rectangle scheme and flat roof. Muhiddin Masjid like to a house in a like an old house in appearance. Architecture of these small mosques followed up the traditional ways in Isparta.