The accelerating modernization efforts which increased in the Republican era in Turkey, the political, economic and social changes which incurred in the post-1980 period as well as the developments in the area of mass communication systems, transportation, communication and technology have increased mobility in between tourism areas as well. This movement, which takes place at different scales and the spatial extension of the flow of tourism activities comprise the focal subjects of the changes and outlook together with the spatial interaction of tourist movements and the related tourism geography.