Sevgi Evleri are the institutions that are used for orphan children allocated by the state as day-care centers and day-care centers for children, education, shelter, protection, nutrition, security and health. In Sevgi Evleri, orphan children continue their lives in a healthy and happy environment and try to adapt to the society. The importance of the study: to investigate the information about Sevgi Evleri in Turkey and to ensure the recognition of Sevgi Evleri. In this context, what is known about Sevgi Evleri and in Turkey and unknowns were investigated.

The aim of this study what is known and unknown about Sevgi Evleri in Turkey and investigating the truth about Sevgi Evleri in Turkey. In this context, 105 people were reached by the questionnaire developed by the researcher and the information about the community's Sevgi Evleri was reached. As a result of the research, it is seen that the society has positive thoughts about Sevgi Evleri but their knowledge on this subject is insufficient. There are still information in the community that the orphaned children are raised in the Child Protection Houses. With this and similar studies, it is aimed to raise the awareness of the society about love houses.