In this study, establishment costs of websites as well as accounting those costs according to Turkish Accounting Standards have been discussed. Costs of establishing a website differ in terms of the attributes of cost items. While some cost items are recorded as direct costs, capitalization of some other cost items must be either as tangible or intangible assets. Moreover, after capitalization, those costs must be assessed according to Turkish Accounting Standards at the end of the terms.